

Danielle Beauparlant Moser

Executive Learning Center Leader, Manpower

Danielle Beauparlant Moser is an Executive Career Management Consultant with Manpower Group Talent Solutions. She drives impact across the employee lifecycle - helping work be a place where people thrive rather than merely survive. Her expertise in career management, career mobility, and developing leaders as coaches. She is the co-author of a book on personal branding, FOCUS: Creating Career + Brand Clarity. Her personal passion is bridging the gap between education and employability. One example is that Danielle is a co-founder of an experiential education middle and high school that is democratizing education for its 500+ students (grades 5 to 12).
