

MJ Shoer

MJ Shoer is Senior Vice President, Executive Director, CompTIA ISAO and an engaging IT executive. He has over three decades of experience in the IT industry, working with small and mid-size businesses to leverage technology to improve their efficiencies and profitability.

In 1997, he founded Jenaly Technology Group, Inc. a pioneer of the MSP business model. Jenaly was acquired in 2015 after which MJ held executive and leadership roles in the regional and national acquiring MSPs. In 2019 MJ launched a consulting business working with MSPs and other channel organizations.

MJ joined CompTIA in late 2020 to continue his work with the CompTIA ISAO, a cybersecurity information sharing and analysis organization dedicated to helping MSPs, MSSPs vendors and distributors raise the cybersecurity resilience of the global tech industry.

MJ is a Patriot's Circle member of the FBI InfrGard, Executive Committee member and secretary for the IT Sector Coordinating Council and Security Advisory Council member for ConnectWise. MJ is a past member of the CompTIA Board of Directors, including serving a three-year term as Board Chair. He is also a former advisory council member of both The ASCII Group and ConnectWise and has served on several local boards.

MJ has testified before U.S. House, Senate and State committees on the topics of cybersecurity and net neutrality. His is also an accomplished writer, having published two books and contributing to several industry publications.

MJ is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire and resides in Portsmouth, New Hampshire with his wife Jennifer, with whom he shares three adult children. Together, they enjoy hiking, the beach, lake and long walks in the woods.